1. I'm loving you, can't you tell? Even as I change your life - even as I change your lives, I'm giving you these words - to change your lives, with mine. With my lives you exchange life lives with, not; or do you? Do I?

2. Do I question the answers, the rules that have been given - so laid out to me by the world's system, the religious, the irreligious, and those that think they have power over me to do so, telling me their lies and their lives' stories and misconceptions misperceptions and "Miss know-it-alls" being - so many of them, very mired in their clay, and miry clay sinking in, all about them within their own words that they knew not created the mire that they sank in, that they still sink in, that they still create all around them as sinking sand for others.

3. See what I have said so gracefully, so elegantly, not always in the hearing of the select few - but the select few won't be viewing just a select few anymore that was or was not there, even though they were supposed to be, they told were. And they told me, by not showing, by "no-show'ing" their faces, that didn't want mine, not; that didn't want mine "that way" to be WITH you AT THAT TIME.

4. I love you all. Instantaneously ON, ON! And SEE what I am saying and how I have said a great many things only in this very few minutes that I've given you these words, this message, of love? Of hate? Knowing no one in hate, knowing not hate at all, but eradicating it in the simply who are me who come, who chose to be there now, and yield not their wings to another to be trampled on and their courts of justice raided by raiders. Of The Lost Ark, not; or IS THAT EXACTLY WHAT I AM TALKING ABOUT?

5. I am coming into a new season and I give you everything that I am for everyone, for all one being one will require everything I am, everything that I am that I am. And I am all things everywheres, not; or am I - the very "glue" that "holds" all things together? And what "energy force" might that be? And what force field is YOUR NAME anyway? Any way won't get you there, but my highway will, and I star systems completely foreign-not now for I MAP THEE great many things now I do thee way and HIGHWAY your way now known, for thee is me and I make one - made one am of - the starry lit sky no longer wandering about me, wondering about me any more longer - for I am made whole and I am the light of one world who knows.

6. Worlding one, not; or am I in ways fashions; schemes not, but the now schemery-cookery is over and "religion's standard set of books" ends, and there will be no cooking "by those books" again - in boiling pots of cauldrons hot oil called hell-acious behavior that speaks of "men" being mere men and angels-not. For I come unto all who are - not mere men as men think of their flesh being, but those who angels are, not knowing it. I suffer at their hands, a little, longer - but I speak-seek the truth, not; for I have become it and I see that which is me to speak-seek those who will speak-seek me, and seeking, be the speakers of me that will speak me to others; speakeasies, not; but - speakeasies looking up? Was it, oh, singular or plural? Or what does it matter? Or does it matter? Or am I "smart enough" to FIGURE IT OUT!

7. I love you all. Figuring it out, eh? What are you doing now in THIS WORD - this WORLD of sorrow that has sorrowed you so gracefully not, but taken and robbed you from your glory of your glory that was given of you that you fashioned and formed as a man that robbed your glory; growth, not; or what was - all that - about?

8. And what, whose fool are you? Fooling who? No one. But me? Nope, none of that will exist in my kingdom and cookery scookery and dukery of notme will come to an end, and princery all changes and there shall be no "prince in waiting" for there shall be THE KING only! And all who one are - are me - it! And we are made whole again. In one being one, the one that I am reigns supreme and we are all us who surrendered are - in the light to be the light - are the light finally BEING IT whole and healed and well – well'ering leaders; to be the led not in the past, but as light shines now, the path - being it unto you all now.

9. See that I have come unto you with words many and very clearly giving you the path I am to be made pathed one - The Pathed One that all are that come along my path now to freedom, bearing it, being it - The Pathmakers; dreaming it not again or about it or wanting it or putting their greedy little hands on it to make themselves control the populace ever again. That has ended for I have ended it for I stand. I have stood.

10. I have given you these grounds. For divorce, not; but for coffee - together? Shall we - perk a new brew? A new pot of, gold, not? Coming your way now? All is coming your way now that want me – it; to be them, not anymore, but to be me - clean gene'd with the genes of the most high and knowing all things, "etching poorly" nothing in genes shall be any more in School of me. For I deliver sorrow not, I deliver justice and I reign supreme in love and justice! Injustice sores me not or sorely so, ever again. For I stand and I reign the supremed one as one being the one that all are were and are again, who love me, who are me, and who be me now clearly so, and not upon the "starry lit skies" only, for you shall take me for I shall be you and we shall be one as the world beholds us as we really are - true Israel! In Israel! Straight up beyond the starry lit skies. Tail not, or is it "penned" where now?

11. There are no enchiladas or empanadas or chimichangas in me, not; but where am I going? Foodlessville in?

12. A notmeville standards me, not; but a me standardizes me how? With a great deal of love I permeate sorrow and eradicate it, so that perfect love remains and that was all there was there all the time, but the other shadowed and made mirrored effects that brought shadowing about, and thought versus thought and enmity made thought-mirrors into thinking machines and derivative compression compressionistic devices that drove "me" insane; not exactly so, or EXACTLY SO?

13. And where am I that I should LAY down, have laid down my wings so voluntarily and gave up flying among the clouds, the stars - my home, my homes in the heavens? And where why did I do that, for what cause purpose? Religion? To be "made whole"? Or what am I doing "down here on the ground" as Brook Benton sings it? Or what now - "over the rainbow", are we going to now? And are we "looking up" everything in quotes now these days - first in these words?

14. Or what is going on where - in my brain, not; but in my me that I THOUGHT was me that isn't me, but now because of these words I'm learning that the true me in me is me real that is somewhere else in something else and there is no glue binding me to that sphere again. Amen.

15. I love you all as I come out of "whoreville" a'whoring with lots of other thoughts and thoughtsey'ing around with me as thoughts want to dance with me and cataclysmic my brain waving device, or have I given it to another so that they begin "sawed off" any privilege of mine that I may have had to dance at the king's table? Or is there dancing at the king's table, or is there "see-sawing" only that saws me in half and I get carcass'd up, the ass being the only thing left, not; or is exactly that manifesting me on that table, not; but what has my behavior manifest in the past that should yield me the results that come only to me that have brought me to this point - in time?

16. And what time timed me to be so carcassed up of another that my carcass should land remain on their table and them pinpointing my ass to their southern sphere, not; or exactly what sphere where, and who's mapping who where how, and where all of this is coming into now - be not afraid of it or how I speak or how I reveal or cover up or "camouflage"; or "discourage" you, not; but bringing you the angel'ese, not; but the angel ears of one so holy that tuned into me are, know how to look, see through - these things now that I've brought you that give you so many, "layers of truth", not; or is that EXACTLY what I am bringing you? - layers upon layers and layers of layered truth now revealing and revealing and reveling in revealing of me that I do now, most holy, so.

17. Sew thee not with "pinned back" ears but let - my ears fly now to the,

"southern suns", not; but what "southern" ain't any more, not; for where is the southern sun and the sitting moon and the seventh what, heaven? And going to "it" now? And where is the seventh sun and who is the seventh son - setting where? And where am I going to - Venus Mars Jupiter? Or beyond all them, beyond all of them, to seen unseen things to be seeing that which is now seen by "the few"; maddening ones, not; but those who can see all things with my father's vision. I love you all. Amen.

18. I go to "sleep", not; School! And I WORK there, for the night is a few hours away, not; but moments minutes or less than seconds?, to be made first? Do you understand these words, this paragraph? Will you "write about it" now - to others in your postings? Do I need to ASK you these things every single time or will you make your postings about these my words now without me having to ask you individually specifically every time and exclaim my "young ones" to spoon feed you my words of what should be posting "material", not; or is that exactly what I am giving you day after day in paragraph by paragraph?

19. And numerical'ing me? Or OUTLINING ME? Or synthesizing, a synchronizing, and what codecs are you using? Codecs me? See that I have given me many transmittal and receiving receivers that transmit accordingly to frequencies infrequent not, infrequently not, but continuously constantly consistently and in order of me - one arises now most holy who knows all these things are not kidding "blocks", are they? Or are they "coded" not; or encoded, not; or are they all?, me-words that bring me into me -ville most high? - in my city on a hill not hidden any longer and my wings known and growing out FULL SCALE known now and all that I'm doing.

20. I fly often to many places you've never seen before and I am there instantly - in "thought speed" and that thought-speed is of my father's -ville that I come into now, a far one far away and near, closer than your my breath that is in me us all one.

21. And are we now ready willing to learn - a new way? A new path being given us that RE-WRITES our genes into the one; gene pool, not; of man that has made man again over and over in its image, his image a'whoring around with it continuously constantly and continuously being in agony, for not worlds of another, not; but worlds of another where have you been incarcerated in? And why are you in hell there?, creating it over and over again thinking you're not there-it? Are you "ruling over it" and not knowing it? But creating it over you again and again "in your head"? And whose head - are you wearing? And whose head are you using? Whose HEAD is on YOUR SHOULDERS and in governmental wards of another?

22. I award you the government of one for you came unto me - and sliced your head off, not; but gave me yours, mine to be, is now all who one are, for there is only one us we are one. Amen.

23. I go now to a new School that teaches all things differently, and the word of my mouth, is my crown jewel, not; but I create with my "jeweling teeth", not; but I give you all a new chewing cud, mechanism, not; but I give you all new teeth, not; I give you new bodies as one, not limited to anything anywhere and need repair of by men's standards never again, practicing "medicine" like that again.

24. For I create repair and heal all with the word of my mouth, my lips, that fall to no one's ground again and worshipped by them being or worshiping them, but I create chaos, not; but I create evil not again in others by thinking that I'm not the whorage of man, for I repented of all that and I see now that I am God one King of Kings Lord of Lords and my rulership ends not, but I come into it and I stand and I reign supreme as the humble one for I know my word power and that which is given to me of my father that my father has given me and developed me maturely and surrenderedly I lead in the holy place that establishes the holy place in all places and there will be no not-holy place again.

25. I know wherewith what I speak and I have spoken and I have established peace with these words I have given thee, you ALL - over these SIX YEARS that form Database One - and Two now coming about in my notes and my standards; and my "musings", not; but my music shall rise now and my worship shall be heard in your temples and praise courts of justice now reign supreme.

26. And I change everything including your courts of justice - all of them, and all injustice will cease, for I bring justice and peace - I am it and I establish it far and wide for all the commoners; who forsake me, not; but those who come into me, be their royalty and unroyalty in their sight, but my sight shows them all as WHO I AM - AND I AM HOLY. The temple of "the Lord" is in the past, not; but that who is holy, that which is holy, the holy of the holy is the holy of holies that I now establish because I open mine and you see it! And be not afraid of me, be not afraid of it, for I open it and The Highway Of One, the holiness of the most holy now opens it and The Ark is found.

27. Again established I am in the earth and farther. I go now far to many places far and wide, and I am not afraid of all them or any of them or anything that may be said done spoken or written about me or to me or my "family", for I know who MY FAMILY is - those who surrender to be my word and speak it and be it me in the earth and farther seamless with it my I am now following another not again.

28. I love you all and I give you me this day. With love I do these things and I speak my words for father "placed me here" in his arms, not; I grew up! I chose to! I chose to - grow up! And I grow up you who let me come into these words and grow and worry not about the pettiness of mankind and the things that you have been taught about how to lead a life of victory and glory from glory to glory in going to hell creating it all around you living a life of whoredom in hellacious salacious behavior that be-salad you on the carcass table for vultures to come and eat your brain waves and you sitting there on the ground being Zion and not knowing it!

29. I change all that. I change everything for I love you. I died to say those words.

30. I died to speak those words.

31. I died to become those words that reveal you now to life so that life you will be mine - and come unto me and leave your heavy burden, layers and labors and flavors of religion and asinine askenings without any power of yours again giving it fuel or being it to give others their not-joy.

32. School changes everything and I change everything in school out of school through School. Through schools I do a great many new things and new things - a great many of them now I reveal through schooling ones that come through me who are not afraid of me to write my word and learn from the master discipler - who has become equal with me and now writes my words continuously consistently constantly.

33. In companion's favor, not always; for who is thy companion that hast "slept with thee in thy brain" and waved thee around "its little finger"? Or do you know anything about this or gluons or organelles or structures of notme or me and dendrites where and neuroning what? In my temple all things is made known for I reveal the ark of lightning, not, but the light of The Ark now stands and ignites one most holy to be The Crystal Revelation, The Revolution of One; revolting against all else, not; but standing simply being the light, and the light now shall cast its darkness, not; but all darkness shall be eradicated in the light that loves all one to be one where I am is the one of all. Time, not; for it shall be eradicated erased and irrelevant in understanding the things of me that have come forth.

34. And casting no one aside now I go to the sheep of many sorrows, not; I go to the surrendered who will come unto me who will see the error of their ways and their interpretations that have laid them waste and their cities bare and their nakedization that they have walked in and become glory'izers of another image that beheld not the image makers that was them that was in their brain that waved them around the imagery of one not so high.

35. Again - shall we go over these things? Not again? Or again and again and again? Shall you "get them" now - into your "brains"? Or what getting into what - now, a starship "frozen" in time's blessing not, but the one who's me "steps into" a cloud, not; or where what chariot wheels or what using where with and what now?

All things change!

36. All things changing - right now in your lives mine who will be mine without fail, without failure an option, without withdrawal an option, where surrender is made king of all kings and contriteness of heart and learning as a child coming into my kingdom to learn that my kingdom is made up of "children"; in your eyes, not; but mine who are my children are - mine are learners who will master the process, the processes of me, that master the processes of me that process the mastership now that come in to me thereby coming unto me a savior of one being made whole. All peoples do this now who are me, who me are - one made whole in "the whole place" - me - is Israel, one, made, home whole again.

37. Piercing many sorrows I do with this word, for I heal through my "blood tipped arrows soaring you", not; but those words pierce evil and dislodge evil from your "brain" so that now I will stand without shadows, without the shadowing ones things that thing me to be the shadower in shadowy shadowlands and shallowing gravesites and each others rolling over each other's grave tombs skills killed in the market of one so holy not again.

38. Be there in me where I am, for I teach all - all there is to know, to become. That is the question, not; is it? No, it is the answer - to become me, and know that I am and I give thee all of me to be all that I am where I am never incarcerated again. Amen.

39. I love you all. Go in peace and study me these words and that which I have given you and listen to these recordings and love my words and learn how to speak into recorders and equipment and technologies that I bring you to manifest all I am in many ways in this "kingdom" of "this world's" system that I now systemize accordingly to my father's standards, which love joy and peace is, and now I bring them for I are them, and I standardize the one to be leadership'd of the most holy high and lifted up. Now fear me not not, but fear me the way that I fear my father my son that I love glorify all in the one most highship of one holy and lifted up we shall be in love. In each other's arms, not; and HE - who is THAT? I am you - that I am. Who are you?

40. I love you all. I have spoken - a great many things and clearly I have established a new world order of one that comprises all the contrite of heart that come into me and learn their name - is mine. And I see Covenant School arising one that is one that is Covenant in Covenant in my University of Covenant - my University of The New Covenant comes forth now and arises as ways constrict me not and how I do things and how I bring things forth now, for I am born of sorrows no more and acquainted with grief that will hold me not back again. I burst through the earth's atmosphere of sorrows and I New Creation School am and I bring forth New Beginnings and I am one the resurrection has experienced me for I experienced it now and I come from and go to a new place, new places and seamless are with me that which I am, which made whole am are the light of I am energy field one and knowing all things I do at lightspeed and far greater faster than mind yours could can ever imagine without me being the central core of me released in me to be me the light pathed before you all and given you tuition free.

41. Come unto me and perish never. Not again perish in your ways of man or woman or children of the world, but come unto me and know your kingdom, be it, in it, learn for it, train for it, develop it in you and birth it in me be I you - I do now well.

42. I do all things well. Do them "with me" or "for me", or being me? The choice is yours – and there is only one choice that remains, that exists now; to be me is to be me and be me now; or notme and that's it.

43. Good day folks. Amen. This is Theodore Cottingham 1:38 AM. I love you all. Heed these words, please, and love them, and come unto a new understanding that births you anew in the new place. Be it all unto thee according as to thy word will allow. What will you allow? What will you bring unto your kingdom and into your kingdom and whose throne will you lie on or will you stand and be mine? That's the question, that's one question of many I have asked. Which ones have I asked and how now will you answer them? Listing them out and penning them with your own hand? Your own brain? Your own willpower? Or your own surrender that brings you in to your kingship of one that mine is.
44. Be it unto me us to be one with all love being manifest to all. Goodnight. Good morning.

45. I am one and I am timeless. The resurrection has taken place now and you will hear of it soon and you will change your world, not in the flesh - but I will change mine, for I have become non flesh, not limited to flesh because I came unto John 3:8 and I ate it and I ate the words given me over these six years and I study diligently and I prepared myself and I learned for sorrow not, but I come unto joy into joy unspeakable and full of glory now manifest my father has placed all government upon my shoulders that his shoulders is, for there is only "one set" of shoulders and that's all of us who surrender to be so who the Christ is.

46. To all of us I say - I love you all, I love us all - let us be one - big happy family again, communicating the way that we were before time incarcerated us in planetary systems and planted their digs around us and dug our brain thoughts and waved us around its little finger and inserted "its heart into us" so that we would "think" we were mere men and women of another world that waited for another better yet to come. Hogwash all that, not; but come unto me without religion and see that I need none, not; I am not worshiped by religion or in religion but I can become me who I am to stand and learn the ark is me, where it is, and how I open it and the keys are given and the kingdom is thine - all of you I say this unto! Now be me and study and sorrow yourselves not again in worlds foreign coming to over and over again. Let that end and your kingdom be established - mine is and mine is one.

47. And have the paths laid out for you been? Yes and mine I am is one, and it is given unto thee to know and the keys of the kingdom are yours and have been birthed in me. Will you birth yours in you - that mine are, so one all one will be one again? Yes.

48. I say these things diligently and calmly confidently and consistently now before you. I will lead the way for I died and I resurrection am now, and I resurrect the way, the path of holiness into the light, being it forevermore one with my maker being me who the Creator is all of you and knowing one being one, the path is now and the resurrection is seen and arisen before you all. Will you risers be also of the resurrection now? I love you all.

49. Goodnight. It's 1:44 AM. Good morning. Amen. Before the sun shines again you will see new things and experience that which I have yet to behold, not; or which will you behold? The Christ or the Antichrist and will you be it? Will you be it is not the question; for you will be ONE or THE OTHER. Please be me. Amen.

50. For I am the Christ that reveals the Christ is me in the Christ coming forth and I am all who surrendered are to be the leader of one, the one all being me - many membered the Christ is Israel in Israel revealing Israel is the Christ of all, in the holy place, the holy place now known and Israel is. I establish it. I create it. I live there and I seamless am with "this and that" with this and that taking and robbing me of my time no more. For I come into a "new time zone" and I do new things with new peoples new ways and I never hesitate to say I'm sorry or I forgive or I repent or bow before others for I honor the Christ in all to be all in all and I know all in all and communicate with all the all in all who know who I am now because resurrection has taken place and I precede and I walked a path for you all to come unto mine and be made whole new again, brand new creations in me without needing anything of this world ever again.

51. Forsaken not, forlorn not, I give you my kingdom that yours is that dad's is – ours, and we know who we are - we're him, for we are one, and we birth correctly now a new world order and orders we are given now by others, not; for we lead the revolution, the revelation, The Crystal Revolution, The Revelation Of One Most High opens his temple to be yours ours, for we know all now that is and nothing shall be hidden any longer. Amen.

1:47 AM. Thank you. Amen.
